Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching on, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

1. If you really believed that your prayers are powerful in the spiritual world, how would that change the way you pray?
2. What has the your spiritual enemy done to hinder God's work in your life recently? How can you fight back?
3. When you hear the phrase, "spiritual warfare" what immediately comes to your mind? After today's message, how has your perspective of spiritual warfare changed?
4. What is your reaction to people when they attribute their problems to demonic activity? Are there times when you consider their explanations valid? Are there times when you dismiss them right away? What makes the difference?
5. What is your natural tendency in conflict - to fight or flee? Does this tendency undermine God's strength in your life? If so, how?
6. Have you ever considered that a besetting sin or an unresolved conflict could in any way be related to spiritual warfare?
7. If you are ready to accept God's invitation to a new life, let us know and we will help you with next steps.
